

Interstellar Planning

A PRODUCT PITCH
BY EMILIO PICHARDO

Stuck in one place...

There's a common issue in every galaxy that no one seems to be addressing. When you wanna take a vacation, but don't want to stay in the same galaxy, what are you supposed to do. That's where we come

Who are we?

Here at Interstellar planning, we use our top of the line interactive tools to find just the vacation you are looking for!

We offer:

- Easy to use search filters
- Planning save functions
- Reasonable rates
- SO MUCH MORE!!

Website Type

The website would be business based, and look like common catalog websites

Examples:

- Trivago
- Zillow
- Realtor.com

Website should be easy to navigate and highly intractable

Software Development Process

For our website we would use the waterfall software development method.

This method works best for us because the step by step planning process helps with building the website and tools as we go, and then adding on in later updates.

Updates will most likely include:

- Locations
- Types of vacations
- Durations of staying time

Target Audience

Our target audience for our services would include, but not limited to:

Family Units:

The Everyday Alien:

Business folk:

Site Map

Insert or sketch your site map.
